Once there was an old apple tree in a farmer's garden. It could not bear fruits anymore. But a large number of sparrows, squirrels and other small birds and insects lived in the tree.

One day the farmer decided to cut down the tree. "It has become useless," he said to himself. "But its wood is still strong. I can make some tables and chairs with the wood." He took a sharp axe in his hands and struck at the roots of the tree.

At once, the birds and animals in the tree cried aloud. The grasshoppers, the sparrows and the squirrels came out of their holes and nests. "Please sir," they begged the farmer.

"Save this tree. It's our only home!". Seeing animals crying, the farmer realised his mistake and went away.
